SUBLIGRAPHICS

An exciting adventure into reproducing full colour plaques. No trapping or registration problems and no expensive process colour set up charges.

Plaques illustrated are in a simulated finish, but all plaques are available in solid wood or piano finish.

WHAT IS SUBLIGRAPHICS?

Subligraphics is the utilization of a process called sublimation in which high quality sublimation inks are laser printed onto specially coated transfer paper and the resulting image is then thermally transferred below the surface of specially coated metals. The vibrant colours are permanently encased onto the surface of the metal.

The full colour metal plate can then be mounted onto any of our laminate plaques, our solid walnut plaques or our piano finished plaques.

WHAT IS REQUIRED TO PRODUCE A SUBLIGRAPHIC PLAQUE?

We are able to accept almost any computer file.

The preferred formats are Adobe Illustrator AI or EPS, Photoshop EPS, Corel Draw files or high resolution TIFF or JPEG files or PDF files. We can accept either Windows or Mac formatted discs. Some formats, such as DXF or WMF or DWG files can be accepted however these formats may need additional artwork before they can be utilized. We will advise you ahead of time if the art submitted will incur any extra cost.

CAN SUBLIGRAPHICS OFFER PMS COLOUR MATCH?

Although perfect colour matching is difficult, we can obtain very close reproduction of your colours.

IS THERE A SET UP CHARGE FOR SUBLIGRAPHICS?

There is no set up charge if e-mailed camera ready artwork is sent to us. If this format is not available, then a set up charge of $65.00 (c) will apply. If your artwork is incomplete or has to be worked on before processing, we will confirm any extra costs before we go ahead.
